Was drunk by 1 AM

Someone didn't show up for their shift

Someone handed off the shift to Yuriy

He put the envelope under some cups behind the bar

Thought he was leaving the envelope in Matt's care

The search will continue

Impact on the social budget for the rest of the semester

As far as the social budget, we should be okay.

Make a note at general meeting

For people doing door shifts, after your shift, you bring the money up to the treasury box, and then you make a sweep of the upstairs to make sure no one is hanging out up there.

Perhaps make a plan: At 2 AM, turn on the lights, pretend the beer is gone.

Plan for the money situation, make it obvious that everyone who has to do their shifts.
